The First Baby in California.

It was on the Fourth of July, and Downieville celebrated. The stars and stripes floated from a peeled and lofty pine, and the chorus of the anvil had re-echoed through the hills. The house was crowded with the miners; poet, reader and orator had performed their parts, and the recently organized brass band was giving in boisterous resonance some national anthem when suddenly there burst out the feeble wail of an infant first blow, then swelling out in all the defiant strength of his baby lungs. The band put forth its loudest strains, the baby, incited to new exertion, redoubled its vigor. It was nip and tuck between the baby and the band. The young mother did her best to divert the child and hush him, when from the audience there up-rose a browny miner, and shaking his fist at the musicians, he cried: "Hush that blamed band, and give the baby a chance!" The band stopped its playing, and never did stalwart men listen to sweeter music than those exiles from home and woman, as they drank in the tones of the wailing child. There were tears in many an eye. The child was hushed upon its mother's breast, and at a word there went up three rousing cheers for the first baby of the Northern Sierra.

STRANGE INCIDENT.—In the procession was a bouquet of such colossal proportions that nine children, whose heads, encased in monstrous representations of melons, lemons, oranges and the like, rose above the flowers, were concealed within the recesses of it. The entire machine was carried on the shoulders of four stout fellows, dressed like Swiss peasants—opera peasants; and very hard work must their task have been. A singular incident, occurred in the midst of the maddest of the revel. In the Via Nazionale is the new American church, with its pretty and lofty tower and peal of bells. And while the surging crowd which filled the vast street were shouting, laughing and flinging their flowers a qui mieux mieux, the American bells began to ring out their call to afternoon service—uselessly, for assuredly few or no worshipers could have made their way to the church. But the effect produced on the crowd was characteristic. The first sounds were greeted with an enormous shout of laughter; then the people began to hiss. The bells were promptly silenced.—Roman Letter.

Power of Sea Breakers.

From experiments which were made sometime since at the Bell Rock and Skerryvore light-houses, on the coast of Scotland, it was found that, while the force of the breakers on the side of the German ocean may be taken at about a ton and a half upon every square foot of surface exposed to them, the Atlantic breakers fall with double that weight, or three tons to the square foot; and thus a surface of only two square yards sustains a blow from a heavy Atlantic breaker equal to about fifty-four tons. In November, 1824, a heavy gale blew, and blocks of limestone and granite, from two to five tons in weight, were washed about like pebbles at the Plymouth breakwater. About three hundred tons of such blocks were borne a distance of two hundred feet, and up an inclined plane of the breakwater, carried over it, and scattered in various directions. A block of limestone, seven tons in weight, was in one place washed a distance of one hundred and twenty feet. Blocks of three tons' weight were torn away by a single blow of a breaker, and hurled over into the harbor; and one of two tons, strongly trenailed down upon a jetty, was torn away by an overpowering breaker.

A traveler thinks he found that the at Charleston the old time people would neither trade nor associate in any way with Northerners, that at Savannah they would trade with them, but not invite them to their houses, but at Atlanta they traded and dined with Massachusetts people as readily as with a Georgian.

Philadelphia is becoming a near neighbor of New York by the enterprise of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which sends two afternoon trains from Jersey City that make the trip in 105 minutes, or over 50 miles an hour.

A member of a School Board near Boston recnetly visited a school under his jurisdiction. When asked to make some remark, he said: "Well, children, you spells well and reads well, but you haint sot still."

There has been very little talk about Leadville lately. Men who go out there in first-class style don't care to be constantly reminded that they had to walk all the way home again.

A matrimonial advertisement winds up as follows: "Fortune no object, but should require the gal's relations to deposit $1,500 with me as a security for her good behavior."

The congregation sang "We are going home to die no more" in a Westfield (Mass.) church, and an irreverent fellow, leaning over to a dyed deacon, said in a loud tone, "Then you'll be gray in a week."

A milkman makes a excellent candidate for office. Practice with the pump-handle enables him to shake hands without experiencing fatigue.

Aural Disturbances from Bathing.

The frequency of attacks of aural inflamation from bathing demands more than a mere mention, for complete deafness may result from the injuries to the ear from this cause, and partial impairment is frequent.

These injuries from bathing are mainly due to the fact that man is not afforded the protection to the ear which amphibious animals possess, and hence the water may act injuriously in various ways. In surf bathing the mere force of contact, when the water flows into the ear may injure the tympanic membrane, and when an incoming wave dashes against the face; water may freely enter the mouth and nose, and thus be driven into the ears through the Eustachian tubes. The presence of cold water for a long time in the canal leading to the ear, as when much diving is done, may set up inflamation in the canal or in the tympanic membrane, which may extend to the drum cavity itself. Ill effects may be produced by allowing the ears, head and body to dry in a current of air coming out of the water. Sea-water is probably more obnoxious than fresh, on account of its comparatively low temperature, and the large quantity of salt it holds in solution. A long continuance in the water should be avoided. The Russian bath should not be taken without protecting the ears when the cold plunge is made. Diving is, however, the most dangerous practice connected with bathing, for it is difficult to keep water from entering the ears, or nose and mouth. In diving the pressure of water on the tympanic membrane from without may cause vertigo. Even syringing the ears gently is known in some instances to occasion decided dizziness.—Harpers Magazine for March.

Fixed Ideas.

In the mind of man: That he is overworked. That his constitution requires stimulents. That if he had them, he could at this moment invest a few hundred to the best advantage. That smoking is good for his nerves, his worries, his literary pursuits, his tooth ache, etc. That he ought to belong to a club. That he could reform the army, do away with the income tax, manage the railways better, and make a large fortune by keeping a hotel. That he knows a good glass of wine. That he could win a heap of money if he were to go to Hamburg. That medicine is all humbug That he could preach as good a sermon himself. That he should soon pick up his French, if he went abroad. That he must win on this year's Derby. In the mind of women: That she has nothing fit to put on. That things ought to be bought because they are cheap. That there is company in the kitchen. That she is not allowed sufficient money for housekeeping. That she never goes out anywhere. That her best black silk is getting awfully shabby. That she requires a change about the month of August. That her allowance is too small. That she never looks fit to be seen. That cook drinks. That there is always "a glare." That there is somebody in the house. That Mrs. Orginaton is dreadfully gone off, or dreadfully made up, or not so very good-looking after all.

MARRYING CHINAMEN.—The absence of Chinese women in the East has compelled the males to intermarry with the whites. There are in New York at the present time nearly 300 Chinamen who have white wives. They are mainly Spanish and Irish women, the Mongolians preferring the latter on account of their skill in domestic labor. Few of them allow their wives to work. This is due to a spirit of gallantry which is visible even in the West. The intermarriages commenced about six years ago. Consequently a young China-Celtic generation is springing up, the eldest of whom is about five years of age. As these children are becoming very numerous, they may become an important factor in strengthening the kindly relations between our citizens and Chinese immigrants. In a year or two some of them will be old enough to enter school. Not only have the Chinese married Spanish and Irish women, but at No. 5 Mott street, New York, there lives a Chinaman who married a colored woman. The pair have three fine-looking children.

A passenger in a crowded street car the other day observed the entrance of a man followed by an old woman, and seeing that she looked tired and weak, he considerately rose and offered her his seat. Before she could take it, however, the man had quietly filled the vacancy. "Here, just come out of that," said the passenger; "I didn't give up my seat to you, but to a lady." To which the fellow replied, without offering to move, "Oh, yah! dot is all right—dot is mein vife."

One has only to die to be praised. Handsome apples are sometimes sour. Little, and often makes a heap in time. It is easier to blame than to do better. Would you be strong, conquer yourself. Speak little, speak truth; spend little, pay cash. Better go supperless to bed than run in debt. There is not good in preaching to the hungry. Better free in a foreign land than a slave at home.—German Proverb.

When Rev. Joseph Cook was a theological student he "always insisted on rooming alone," and the Boston Herald wonders how anybody could have had any disposition to prevent him from doing so.

Eloquence.

Eloquence in a man is as difficult to define as fascination in a woman. It is an indescribable something which carries us away captive, we know not why or how. And it is almost infinite variety. Burke was, and is, considered one of the greatest, if not the greatest, of English orators, yet the House of Commons never adjourned after a speech of his to enable the members to regain their mental balance. The House of Commons did do that for Sheridan. None will deny to Webster the first-class oratorical ability, yet he could never sweep an audience with him as did Clay. Burke and Webster will live forever in print; Sheridan and Clay in that fond tradition which is quite as imperishable, if not satisfactory. Sargent S. Prentiss was probably more eloquent than either Sheridan or Clay, yet he exists only as a dim and fading memory. It is doubtful whether the very highest order of eloquence can be preserved in any other way. The subtle spirit that prevades it and gives to it irresistable or power evaporates in type. The body is there, but the soul has fled. So the grandest eloquance may be said to die with the breath that carries it to the ear. Demosthenese and Cicero—we read them with delight, but what must they have been to those who heard the words of living fire rush from the speaker's lips.

THE CAUSE OF HER GRIEF.—Several days ago, on the Norman Coast, a bather was drowned. Up to this time his body has not been recovered.

Every morning the young and disconsolate widow of the drowned man comes and seats herself on the beach, questioning the unreplying ocean with eyes red with weeping. It is in vain that her friends seek to dissuade her from this painful practice.

"No," says she, "the sea has taken him from me, and the sea must bring him back to me."

They began to fear at last that the woman would lose her reason, and a distant relative was appointed to bring her around to thoughts of resignation.

"Come, come, Henrietta," said he, "you must give a reason for this!"

"A reason!" exclaimed the widow, between her sobs, "it is very easy for you to demand a reason, but—boo-hoo-hoo!—if they don't find his body I can never get married again.—[French Paper.]

In a street in Canton rats are hung up for sale with poultry. They are dried and salted and are very much affected by ladies whose hair is falling off, as the flesh of rats is known to be an excellent preventive of baldness. Pork is one of the staples of Chinese cookery, the best bacon and hams coming from the provinces of Fokien and Quang Tung, the flavor of the hams being much improved by keeping them for a year or two in sawdust after they have been cured. As in Europe and here certain places in China are renowned for their products, such as Pekin for its sweet ducks, Toulion, a small village near that city for its vinegar (tsou), Tchin-Kiang, in the Kiangsu, for a sauce made with fermented beans and salt, which the Chinese use as we use Worcestershire sauce.

About $600,000 was saved in the construction of the Hoosic Tunnel by the use of an improved drill. The inventor of the drill, who died in Boston on Tuesday last, received only $5,000 for the contrivance. He also invented series of signals for use on ships of war, which were highly commended by the Government and were patented both in this country and Europe. He made many other contributions to labor-saving machinery, but notwithstanding his inventions he never realized even a comfortable competence from them owing to the difficulty of introducing them before the expiration of the patents.

It is pointed out that in these hard times a hint how to provide a most acceptable and inexpensive present for the children may not be unwelcome. It was the practice of an eminent army surgeon to look up his olive branch a week before the anniversary of his birthday. On that day he solemnly opened his dungeon and released him, saying: The most valuable boon which man can enjoy is liberty! Take it, my son, as a welcome present from your parents.

An old farmer who was solicited by a committee to permit his son to take lessons in penmanship from a long-fingered professor, who could teach all sorts of 'hands,' with flourishes and scroll pictures thrown in, said, 'No; let the boy write his own hand and then he'll never go to York and be a forger and ask me to mortgage the farm to go his bail.'

We are not to trust God as far as we can see him, but we are to trust him absolutely. We are not to gauge our faith and hope in him by what we can reason, but going with reason as far as we can, we are then to make a bold leap beyond, for we have a God that doeth "exceeding abundantly beyond all we can ask or think."

The noblest spirits are those which turn to heaven, not in the hour of sorrow, but in that of joy; like the lark they wait for the cloud to disperse that they may soar into their native element.

Telegraphic.

COAST.

Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A fire broke out about 8 o'clock last night in the hold of the Steamer City of Sidney, laying at the Pacific Mail dock. A general alarm was turned on. The compartment in which the fire started was flooded and the flames subdued. Damage to cargo probably $10,000. The ship was but slightly injured. She was to have sailed for Australia to-morrow, but will be detained three or four days. The cause of the fire was spontaneous combustion of a lot of oil-skin clothing.

Changing his Tone.

At the sand lot yesterday Kearney announced that he had been deceived regarding the object of the Citizen's Protective Union; that their real purpose was to restore business confidence, create a demand for labor, and ameliorate the condition of the community generally. In this, he said, he was with them. That some designing people had given out that the organization was for the purpose of opposing the workingmen by violence; this he was assured was all a mistake; no violence was intended by the Union, and all good citizens should support them in their real object. In the Metropolitan Temple, last evening, Kalloch spoke to thesame purport.

Drowned.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Henry F. Merrill, a member of Co. D. Artillery, was drowned in the Bay last night.

Three Chinamen were drowned last night by the swamping of their boat in the gale.

The second mate of the British bark Highflyer, lying at Beale street wharf, fell from the deck and was drowned

Sand Lots.

There was a large attendance at the sand lots this afternoon, including many more respectable classes drawn by curiosity. Kearney took an entirely new departure. He invited the leaders of the Citizen's Protective Union to meet the leaders of the Workingmen on the sand lots for an exchange of views, promising them respectful hearing. He also informed his followers that the objects of the Citizen's Protective Union had been misapprehended. That they intended to use the association for the amelioration of the condition of the city for the good of the laboring classes, and the restoration of prosperity. That some unscrupulous men had taken advantage of the movement to create an impression that violent measures against workingmen were meant. His audience received his novel speech ademonstratively. At Metropolitan Temple this evening, Kalloch adapted Kearney's cue and spoke to similar effect. It is evident that the Citizen's Protective Union is making its influence felt.

Desperate Fight With Thieves

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Officers Annis and Osgood last night intercepted a gang of six theives, with horses and wagon, attempting to carry away a lot of cigars and spirits stolen from the Overland Warehouse, Townsend Street. A fight ensued and Annis was wounded by pistol shot in the groin. Two of the theives were captured, and one partly handcuffed, but both escaped with the others. The team and stolen goods were captured. Annis wound is not dangerous.

Kearney Again.

In the Police Court to-day Judge Rix delivered a lengthy decision in the case of Denis Kearney, charged with using vulgar and threatening language against Spreckles, and held defendant guilty, on the ground that it was calculated to provoke a breach of the peace. Second charge, that of threatening to kill any person who would plot against his life. The Court held that it could not be considered a crime, as circumstances in which the killing would be justified were recited as qualifying threats. Sentence reserved until to-morrow.

Assessments.

Queen Bee levies an assessment of ten cents.

Con. Pacific levies an assessment of $1; and Sacramento, 15c.

Bill Passed.

The Governor to-day signed Ryan's bill in relation to the U. S. currency. This repeals the specie contract law, and allows payment of taxes in currency.

Protective Union.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A conference, of great importance in its bearing upon the present condition of affairs in the city, was held at the Mayor's office this afternoon, between Mayor Kalloch, representing the Workingmen, and a number of prominent citizens, bankers, merchants etc. on part of the Citizens Protective Union The conference lasted from one until quarter to three o'clock, and was harmonious and satisfactory. The whole situation and event of the last few weeks were reviewed and discussed. At present, various considerations combine to make it inadvisable to make the details public, but it may be stated, that there is every reason to believe, that within two or three days, arrangements will be consumated ensuing complete, harmonious, and mutually honorable settlement, of the questions which have so long vexed this community, and a reaction of good will, business confidence, and activity and general prosperity.

A survey of the steamer City of Sydney this afternoon, shows that her departure will be delayed, probably, until next Saturday.

Heavy Mining Sale.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15th.—A Tucson dispatch says that Schieffin Brothers have sold their interest in the Tombstone Mill and Mine to-day for $2,000,000, to Corbin Brothers and Disston party of Philadelphia, and Simmons & Squire, of Boston. and the Emperor drove him from the country. For a time he found shelter in San Francisco, but was followed by emissaries of the Chinese government who were anxious to get his head, on account of large rewards which the home authorities offered for it. Foo then came to Chicago and has lived here in comparative peace until the other day a number of his countrymen made a deadly assault upon him and attempted to cut off his head with an ax. It is said that the Chinamen were actuatted by a hope of reward, and it was this which led to the attempt at assassination.

Chinese in Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 14.—Lew Long and Lee King two of the Chinamen who assulted Wong Ching Foo with hatchets and razors in a laundry here a few days ago, were arrested last night by officer Lacey and Casy. Foo was a revolutionist in his native land,

More Rascality.

RICHMOND, March 15.—The community was startled yesterday by the public announcement tha Dr. Luther A. Dickenson, editor and proprietor of the State Planter & Farmer Magazine, and another prominent citizen of Richmond, had been engaged for two years past in a systematic course of forgeries. using forged endorsements of Jeter & Dickenson, proprieiors of the Religious Herald, to negotiate notes of his own, which he offered for discount at various banking institutions of this city, or sold to note brokers. He has also forged indorsements of the Rev. Dr. Geo. B. Taylor, a Baptist Missionary to Rome, Italy, and Rev. Chas, E. Taylor, professor in Wake & Forest College, North Carolina, both of whom are his brothers-in-law. The fact that he was the brother of Rev. Dr. A. E. Dickenson, a Junior member of the firm of Jeter & Dickenson, and was otherwise so highly connected, disputed all suspicion if the genuineness of the forged signatures, and he might have continued his criminal operation for a long time, but for the recent death of Rev. Dr. J. B. Jeter, senior member of the firm of Jeter & Dickenson, which event rendered impossible further use of the firm name in negotiating loans. The settlement of affairs of deceased Dr. Jeter led to the discovery of the forgeries. The forger finding a disclosure of his many crimes about to be made, left the city last Thursday, ostensibly on business, since which time he has not been heard from. He left behind him a contrite letter, saying he was penniless, but would strive to pay all his debts and live an honest life. The amount of his forgeries is $28.000.

Heavy Suit.

NEW ORLEANS, March 14th.—A suit has been brought against the Directors of the Mechanics & Traders Bank to recover $145,000, the amount due depositors and other creditors. The Directors are charged with valuing the assets at $390,000, when they were not worth more than $120,000. The petitioners allow that the bank was to the knowledge of the Directors insolvent for a year preceding the failure.

And Again Kearney.

NEW YORK, March 14th.—The Tribune in a long editorial on the arrest of Kearney says it is intimated that in the present state of affairs in San Francisco, he cannot be convicted. Very well, the arrest is a warning to him that he is trespassing on the forbearance of the public, and if impunity should make him, as is likely, more reckless and defiant, it will have the effect to bring the business sooner to a head and shorten this fellows scandalous career.

Democratic Harmony.

NEW YORK, March 14.—A new plan for restoring harmony among the Democratic factious, which next week will be reduced to an actual experiment, is the summoning of a mass meeting of the Democracy of all shades of opinion to respond to Hayes' message, in favor of applying the Monroe doctrine to the Isthmus canal. The speakers will be evenly apportioned between the friends of Tilden and Kelly.

Irish Relief

NEW YORK, March 15th.—The Herald says: "The Constelation will be ready to receive contributions to-morrow for Irish relief. More than one-half of the cargo is assured, provided the balance will be supplied. A public spirited and benevolent citizen has appeared to defray the expense of one-fourth of the full cargo Several liberal contributions have been made in response to these conditional offers, and it ought to be easy to load the Constellation up to the limit of her capacity within the ensuing six or eight days.

Death of an Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th.—Charles Cathcart Taylor, city editor of the Times, died yesterday from the effects of a pistol shot discharged during mental aberation, by his own hand.

The Railroad Contract.

CHICAGO, March 15th.—The Times Washington special says: The Senate Judiciary Committee find that Gould and Huntington by the Pacific Mail contract, have gained entire control of the trade between San Francisco, China and Japan. The payment of the subsidy to the Pacific Mail is the smallest part of the affair. The arrangement by which the Railroads pay the subsidy can, it is thought, be reached by Congress, it being illegal under the charter. It is hinted that Gould and Huntington will not be averse, having secured the better portion of the Pacific Mail Company.

Negro Exodus.

Henry Adams, colored, testified to personal discomforts and danger in Loisianna, and said the colored men were being driven daily from Arkansas, Texas and other Southern States, by their deplorable condition. The dishonesty of merchants and planters, he acknowledged, was the reason why they could not make money in the south. There was not much difference between Republican and Democratic rule as to the treatment of the negroes, but they had to pay more taxes under the Democratic rule, and the whites paid less.

Whipping Post.

RICHMOND, March, 14.—Jack Epps, a white man, was publicly whipped at the Prince George Court House yesterday, for obtaining a coffin under false pretenses.

Another Rupture.

LONDON, March 15.—Information has been received of a rupture between France and Madagascar in consequence of a misunderstanding between French Consul and the Government. The Consul has hauled down his flag and appalled to his Government for support.

CABUL, March 15.—The general aspect of affairs is hopeful. No hostile gathering is known to exist in any quarter, and the approaching agricultural season is likely to leave the people little leisure for war. The latest accounts from Ghuzenee indicate a strong likelihood that Mahmond Jan will submit and the puppet Moosa Khan will be restored to his mother here. Abdul Rhamun Khan makes no sign. The troops here will be reinforced by four regiments of native infantry.

The BODIE CHRONICLE formerly a weekl paper, published by the Folger Brothers, has been turned into a daily, and is a real live newsy paper. If Bodie proves a permanent success, the DAILY CHRONICLE will surely survive its swaddling clothes, as its proprietors know how to run a paper both economically and well.—Eldorado Republican.

NEW TO-DAY.

Survey of the Town-Site of Bodie

BRIDGEPORT, CAL.,
March 16, 1880.

WHEREAS, THE CONTRACT FOR THE survey of the town-site of the town of Bodie, Mono County, California, having been duly awarded to Leo A. Scowden, he being the lowest bidder therefor;

NOONDAY.

B. R. Taylor, Sup't.

The force of men has been reduced at this mine, their being enough ore now in sight to keep the mill running for a long time, but the work is progressing in all the drifts, etc. as usual, only by 10-hour shifts instead of 8-hour. One of the new rock breakers is running in the mill, and doing good work, as well as making a great reduction in expenses. Everything about the mine and mill running smoothly.

BECHTEL,

B. R. Taylor, Supt.

Crosscutting west on the 400-level, and in about 100 feet; and looking well. Extending the drift south on the west vein, on the 400-level and are now 300 feet from the shaft. Everything about the mine is very encouraging.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.—We learn that an electric company will shortly commence introducing the electric light into Bodie. It will probably be done under the management of a gentleman well known here, and will make a success of the enterprise, if there is any merit in it.

DENIES IT.—Jack Lynch, who was fined $24 by Justice Newman for a misdemeanor, denies that he whipped his wife, as stated in last nights Standard. Mr. Lynch is a hard working man, and feels injured by the Standard's statement.

THE INDIGENT DEAD.—The Board of Supervisors have contracted with Mrs. E. A. Friend, to bury the indigent dead of this county at the rate of $20 a body. This is low enough.

STAGE LATE.—The Carson Stage did not arrive here yesterday until forty minutes past four, in the afternoon. Some part of the sleigh broke near Williams station, causing a delay of two and one half hours.

TO LOT OWNERS.—In a few days L. A. Scowden and deputies, will commence the survey of the town-site of Bodie. It will expedite business if lot men will consult with Mr. Scowden.

COURT BUSINESS.—Harry Course was arrested yesterday for stealing groceries, and Justice Peterson set his trial for 3 o'clock this afternoon.

CON PACIFIC.—The first assessment has been levied by this Company. It is $1, per share; delinquent April 16th; sale May 8th.

GOOD MEALS.—If you want a good meal, go to the Champion and have a pleasant chat with Mr. Walsh, the popular caterer of the late Nevada Restaurant.

TOWN-SITE SURVEY.—In another column will be found a notice from Superior Judge Briggs, concerning the survey of Bodie town-site.

STAGE OFFICE.—Yesterday the Stage Office was changed to the Grand Central Hotel.

ABORTION.—The Coroner's Jury returned a verdict that the cause of Sarah Bush's death was abortion.

LETTER DROPS.—Additional letter-drops have been placed in the Post Office.

THE WEATHER.—The weather continues good—cold nights and warm days.
